

Data period: January 2023 – November 2024

43

children introduced to the remediation programme (2023: 20)

4

children have successfully completed their remediation

38

children currently active in the programme

local CSOs working with The Hub global companies, actors and organisations supporting The Hub mining hubs where The Hub's programme is prioritised active case managers

approved junior case managers

85%

of children enter child labour to support their family due to poverty

months of child labour remediation provided since the start of the programme in 2022

children back in primary and secondary school siblings provided with educational support children provided with vocational skills training

13.3

average age of children in the programme

1

child reunited with their family through The Hub's programme

At 12, Kamia was discovered by The Hub in an orphanage. As part of the child labour remediation programme, she was reintegrated into school while her family received support. The Hub also worked to reunite her with her parents.

Read the story here.