

CHILD RIGHTS IN BUSINESS (CRIB) WORKING GROUP

The Centre's Child Rights in Business (CRIB) Working Group brings brands and retailers together to collaborate, share best practices and stay informed on the latest developments in child rights and human rights due diligence.

BENEFITS FOR MEMBERS

- 🕒 Stay Ahead of Child Rights Risks and HRDD Legislation: Access real-time insights, trends and data on child rights and human rights issues, drawing from The Centre's extensive experience in global supply chains. Our resources equip members to better understand and mitigate risks, proactively address challenges, and comply with evolving regulations.
- 🤝 Collaborate on Joint Initiatives: Partner with The Centre and fellow CRIB members on large-scale multi-stakeholder projects addressing child labour and advancing child rights, including child rights action hubs.
- 🚀 Rapid Response to Child Labour Cases: Gain guaranteed access to The Centre's Child Labour Rapid Response service for fast, effective action in the event of suspected cases within your supply chain.
- 🗣️ Engage in Expert-Led Meetings & Task Forces: Participate in regular online/in-person CRIB working group meetings in Hong Kong, New York and London. Workstream meetings addressing specific topics on child rights and human rights are also held year-round.
- 📄 Priority Access to Research & Case Studies: Be the first to access the latest research, legal updates and case studies from The Centre, presented with a focus on practical action to strengthen due diligence approaches.
- 🌐 Exclusive Access to the CRIB Working Group Online Platform: Enjoy members-only access to our exclusive online platform, which provides a wealth of essential resources.

HOW IT WORKS

In-person or hybrid working group meetings three times a year
(in Hong Kong, London and New York)

Workstream meetings addressing specific topics on child and human rights held year-round

Connect with 40+ leading brands and retailer members